The Clarsach Society holds personal data about its members. This data is used to process your membership, provide you with information from the Society and to enable us to carry out our work.

Communications from the Society include news and event information from your branch, the National Office and the Edinburgh International Harp Festival. We understand you don't want to be inundated with mail so we have a very clear policy on the frequency of communications -- we only contact you if there's something newsworthy to talk about.

You must tick this box to confirm that we are allowed to hold your details and make contact with you by email and occasionally by post or telephone.
