ELIGIBILITY AND RULES

1. (a) Any member of the society, Adult or Junior, may apply.
(b) Unsuccessful applicants may re-apply in future years.
(c) Successful applicants may NOT re-apply.
2. The scholarship is intended to benefit and encourage promising players at any level who have limited resources, financial or otherwise.
3. The award will be a fixed sum for use towards the cost of tuition and accommodation at an approved course with a Scottish content, e.g. Edinburgh International Harp Festival, or for a course of private lessons, or instrument hire.
4. Applicants will be given consideration by The Society's Music Committee and the scholarship awarded to the candidate(s) considered most deserving. The committee's decision shall be final.
 - a) All entries should be emailed to: office@clarsachsociety.co.uk by the 1st of November and the letter of recommendation should be emailed separately, directly from the sponsor (to be confidential from the applicant):
 - b) The sponsor being a recognised music teacher, who need not be a clarsach teacher but should be a teacher of music or performing musician able to comment on the applicant's general musical ability.
6. Applications must be with the Administrator by 1 November 2019. The award may then be used during the following calendar year.
7. The successful applicant is required to submit a photograph and short written account on how the award was applied to be published in the society's Annual Report and on its website.
